Remember to check the Red Box before you begin shopping and check last week's CRT's to see if you can stack them with this week's deals.

*The coupon matchup website I use to match up these deals is Insert Insanity

Please note all states and regions vary so you may not get all the coupons I am matching up with these deals. That is why I post this very early so you have an opportunity to review.

I recommend you read and print the coupon policy so you can refer back to the policy if you have issues at your CVS. CVS generally is coupon friendly but you may run into an inexperienced cashier and or manager.
